June 2018 Newsletter

New Laws Affecting Your Associations and How To Voice Your Concerns to Legislators

There was a full house of ACTHA members and non-members alike for the seminar on May 17th at the Deerfield Public Library. The speaker for the night was Marshall N. Dickler of the law firm of Dickler, Kahn, Slowikowski and Zavell Ltd. Read more to see how attendees learned how important it is to be current and involved in the legislative process!

ACTHA Association of the Month Inquiries

Are you interested in ACTHA featuring your Association as Association of the Month? To have your Association highlighted, please e-mail us at actha@actha.org. To strengthen and grow the ACTHA community, we hope to highlight a different member each month to learn and share "best practices" among Associations.

We will email all interested Associations an application which you will return to us with a photo of your Association for the Board to review for publication.

Attention! Call for Committee Volunteers

The ACTHA Board of Directors are looking for committee volunteers to get involved and raise awareness about ACTHA. Following is a list of committee options for our members to get involved:

- Communications- marketing and newsletter

- Education- developing education subjects for events and seminars
- Events- creates three events/expos and increase membership
- Membership- help recruit more ACTHA members

Please email actha@actha.org to join!

The Board of Directors encourages all association members to share this newsletter to their individual members so they can utilize the services of ACTHA year round!
